

BECOME SOMEONE!

Music and lyrics: B.CHAMBERT

This morning's like all the other ones,
A prisoner of myself I walk alone,
Never thought that my life would change with a call.
"Hey Boy, tonight it's the party,
All the classroom want all your energy."
I can't believe that I'm invited.
"Join us, we know, you're wild, you've got the vice.
And don't forget that you'll have a big surprise..."

Chorus:

Tonight it's gonna be the party!
Tonight I'm gonna touch a body
I could find somebody to love.
Tonight it's gonna be the party!
Tonight I'm gonna dance with buddies.
I am gonna become someone! (x2)

I'm paralysed, it's the moment
To show them who I really am.
It's a hurricane which blows my past away.
"Hey dad, what do you think of this?"
He said: "Stop son, you're on an ejection seat.
The countdown is started, heed my warning."
I answer: "You don't want to see me satisfied!
You don't wanna see me ride!
This seat'll eject me into paradise!"

Chorus

Tonight it's gonna be the party!
Tonight I'm gonna touch a body
I could find somebody to love.
Tonight it's gonna be the party!
Tonight I'm gonna dance with buddies.
I am gonna become someone! (x2)

Guitar solo

Big cigar, smoking, I've got it all.
I'm looking cool at the front door.
"Welcome to the party..." whispers me this beauty.
Hey hey! Everything's going so fast.
I drink and dance, I'm really in trance,
Follow to the bedroom, my sorceress.
She undresses me, my heart's racing,
She wasn't the only one to see my nudity,
Everybody came in, they're all laughing at me!

Chorus

Tonight ain't gonna be your party!
Tonight you'd better listen your daddy!
Never find somebody to love!
Tonight ain't gonna be your party!
Tonight you're gonna dance lonely!
Never gonna become someone! (x2)
